SUMMARY OF RESPONSIBILITIES

An Attorney III in the Dispute Resolution Division works as a mediator with minimum supervision, broad discretion, prudence, and independence, is expected to have a commanding understanding of the laws the Department enforces. Under the general supervision of the Deputy Director of the Dispute Resolution Division, with minimal review and substantial authority, an Attorney III facilitates communications between complainants and respondents to discuss their dispute and reach a mutually agreeable resolution by performing the following duties:

Description of Essential Functions:

35% Judiciously schedule complex, difficult, and sensitive pre- and post-investigation mediations for individual, class, group, and systemic civil rights cases. Engage in pre-mediation work including:

- Review all documents in the Mediator Portal for the case.
- Facilitate the convening of mediations in a manner that ensures parties understand the process and prioritizes the parties' needs and preferences with respect to timing and format (i.e. video, phone, in-person, etc.).
- Conduct pre-mediation calls with parties to obtain further information about their positions.
- Facilitate pre-mediation negotiations as appropriate.
- Review and analyze parties' pre-mediation submissions, including mediation briefs and documents.
- Research issues raised in the complaint, pre-mediation briefs, and other documents to identify any legal or policy concerns that need to be addressed prior to mediation or in mediation.
- Inform DRD management of any concerns prior to the mediation, consistent with Division and Departmental policy.
- Meet Dispute Resolution Division timelines and protocols for convening mediations.

35% Conduct a mediation fostering an environment that is mindful of the needs and sensitivities of the parties, including the following:

- Maintain awareness and adherence to mediation ethics and rules of professional conduct.
- Assist parties in evaluating strengths and weaknesses of cases. Negotiate with parties and create an opportunity for a mutually agreeable resolution.
- Meet Dispute Resolution Division timelines and protocols for conducting and completing mediations, and reporting outcomes.

25% Prepare and review written settlement agreements consistent with California law and Departmental procedures. Keep abreast of developments and changes in the law and conduct legal research as necessary. From assignment through closure of the mediation case, keep the parties informed about status, including mediation dates and case closure.

Marginal Functions:

5% Participate in Division wide activities, including working with and responding to management or administrative inquiries, attending staff meetings, education, outreach activities and/or training. Perform other duties/projects as assigned.

Desirable Qualifications:

- Completion of at least 40 hours of verifiable formal mediation training that includes conflict resolution, mediation theory and role-play and mastery of the laws governing mediation, including, but not limited to confidentiality.
- Mediation of numerous cases, including but not limited to group or class complaints, alleging employment, housing, or other forms of discrimination that may or may not have specified claims of violations of the Fair Employment and Housing Act, Unruh Civil Rights Act, Ralph Civil Rights Act, and/or other laws within CRD's jurisdiction to conclusion in the role of mediator.
- Excellent communication skills and ability to effectively interact with people in emotionally charged situations.
- Ability and experience in the role of mediator to effectively analyze issues in dispute, evaluate their importance and susceptibility to compromise and formulate ideas and practical suggestions for alternative solutions.
- Experience conducting mediations via videoconference using web-based platforms such as Zoom or other videoconferencing platforms.
- Ability to multi-task, meet deadlines and work well under time constraints.
- Excellent organizational and case management skills.
- Integrity, initiative, tact, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work independently and cooperatively.
- Ability to operate a computer and knowledge of MS Excel, Word, and Teams and other critical software programs.
- Ability to travel to conduct State business.
