

DUTY STATEMENT
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, CIVIL LAW DIVISION
CANNABIS CONTROL SECTION

JOB TITLE: Deputy Attorney General III

GENERAL STATEMENT:

Deputy Attorneys General III in the Cannabis Control Section (CCS) handle civil trials and administrative hearings; handle state court injunctive and other enforcement proceedings and subpoena enforcement actions, and return of seized property and Pitchess motions in pending criminal cases; represent state cannabis licensing and enforcement agencies and/or their members or investigative staff in state and federal civil litigation matters, which may challenge the application or constitutionality of specific state statutes or raise other issues; prepare bill analyses, and respond to Public Records Act requests and public inquiries. Deputy Attorneys General III work collaboratively, professionally, courteously and ethically with colleagues, clients, support staff and courts; and manage their work under public scrutiny and pressure to produce high-quality work within short timeframes.

Deputy Attorneys General III are experienced attorneys with the ability to capably handle the routine legal work of the section, as well as the difficult, complex, sensitive, and consequential legal work of the section, and to produce favorable results. They ably manage a challenging workload and produce high-quality work product, sometimes under tight deadlines. They are also effective oral advocates. Deputy Attorneys General III gradually exercise more independent judgment in representing the section's clients on increasingly difficult, complex, sensitive, and consequential legal matters, and may be assigned litigation of similar difficulty, complexity, sensitivity, and consequence, including cases that may be appealed to the highest courts.

SUPERVISION RECEIVED: Deputy Attorneys General III work under the supervision of a Supervising Deputy Attorney General and the Senior Assistant Attorney General. In a particular matter, the Supervising Deputy Attorney General or Senior Assistant Attorney General may designate another supervisor/manager to oversee the work of the deputy.

OVERSIGHT EXERCISED: Deputy Attorneys General III may direct, monitor, and oversee the work of paralegals, and may act as a lead person over the work of other attorneys.

TYPICAL PHYSICAL DEMANDS:

- May be required to sit for long hours on a daily basis, often while using a computer to do research, draft documents, and perform other duties.
- Be able to travel out-of-town for work-related purposes (including overnight travel), sometimes for extended periods of time and sometimes to remote areas.
- Be able to lift/move up to 25 pounds of books, legal files, exhibits, and/or equipment.

TYPICAL WORKING CONDITIONS:

- May be required to work over eight hours a day and on weekends/holidays, including during trials and administrative hearings or as otherwise required by operational needs.
- While working in the office, works in an enclosed interior or exterior window office in a smoke-free environment.
- While teleworking, works in compliance with the office's Telework Program Policy and Procedural Guide, the Exceptional Telework Request Procedures, the Legal Division Teleworking Expectations memorandum, and their section policies.

DUTIES (Essential Functions)

- 30% Effectively manages a civil and administrative litigation caseload of increasing difficulty, complexity, sensitivity, and consequence, while meeting all deadlines; investigates facts and analyzes evidence; develops litigation plans, trial themes, and trial strategies; efficiently prepares and responds to pleadings, petitions, motions, writs, briefs, memoranda, written discovery requests (including e-discovery), evidentiary objections, settlement offers, other legal documents, and correspondence (including emails); retains consultants; retains and prepares expert witnesses for trial; takes and defends depositions; prepares witnesses for trial; prepares for mediation or other resolution; prepares for trial including, as necessary, by participating in mock trials or moot courts; examines and cross-examines witnesses; prepares jury instructions and verdict forms.
