CORE VALUES / MISSION Rank and File Supervisor Specialist Office of Administrative Hearings Client Agency

The Department of General Services' (DGS) and Office of Administrative Hearings' (OAH) Core Values and Employee Expectations are key to the success of OAH's Mission. That mission is to "provide a neutral forum for fair and independent resolution of administrative matters, ensuring due process and respecting the dignity of all." DGS/OAH employees are to adhere to OAH's Core Values and Employee Expectations, and to perform their duties in a way that exhibits and promotes those values and expectations.

POSITION CONCEPT

Range A: Under direction of the Supervising Administrative Law Judge (Sup ALJ) in the OAH General Jurisdiction (GJ) Division, the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) in Range A conducts administrative hearings and routine assignments, typically involving relatively settled points of law and only one to two parties and few legal issues to develop skills to manage more complex hearings and assignments. The ALJ in Range A presides over quasi-judicial hearings regarding renewal, suspension, or revocation of licenses and other matters referred to OAH for hearing and prepares proposed or final decisions in compliance with applicable provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), other relevant legal authorities, and OAH policies and procedures, utilizing OAH's electronic case management system and other software and online systems and tools.

Range B: Under general direction of the Sup ALJ in the GJ Division, the ALJ in Range B holds the journey level position and works independently within a broad and diversified assignment with considerable latitude for initiative and independent judgment and is assigned to specialized and difficult, sensitive, and controversial cases, often involving novel legal theories, unsettled points of law, multiple legal issues, multiple parties, or consolidated matters. The ALJ in Range B presides over quasi-judicial hearings regarding renewal, suspension, or revocation of licenses and other matters referred to OAH for hearing and prepares proposed or final decisions. The position may lead and mentor other ALJs by assisting and advising them on the analysis of complex or otherwise challenging legal or factual issues.

All duties are performed in accordance with applicable provisions of the APA, other relevant legal authorities, and OAH policies and procedures, utilizing OAH's electronic case management system and other software and online systems and tools.
