DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This class is distinguished from the Dietetic Technician classification by the custody requirements imposed by the forensic nature of the clients or patients in State facilities and by the security features of these facilities.

EXAMINATION SCOPE

This examination consists of the following components:

Training and Experience Evaluation – Weighted 100% of the final score. The exam will consist solely of a Training and Experience Evaluation. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received.

In addition to evaluating applicants' relative knowledge, skills, and ability, as demonstrated by quality and breadth of education and/or experience, emphasis in each exam component will be measuring competitively, relative job demands, each applicant's:

Knowledge of:

1. Principles, practices, and theories of nutrition and dietetics.
2. Methods of planning, preparing, and serving food to a large number of persons.
3. Special dietary requirements of mentally or developmentally disabled persons and other client or patient groups.

Ability to:

1. Apply the principles and practices of nutrition and dietetics.
2. Communicate nutritional data to the health care team and food service employees.
3. Keep records and prepare reports.
4. Analyze situations accurately and adopt an effective course of action.

Special Personal Characteristics:

1. Sympathetic understanding of and willingness to work with the client or patient population of a State institution.

Special Physical Characteristics:

1. Possession and maintenance of sufficient strength, agility, and endurance to perform during physically, mentally, and emotionally stressful and emergency situations encountered on the job without endangering their health and well-being or that of fellow employees, clients, patients, or the public.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A Departmental, Open eligible list for the Dietetic Technician (Safety) classification will be established for:

Department of State Hospitals

The names of successful competitors will be merged onto the eligible list in order of final score regardless of exam date. Eligibility expires 12 months after it is established. Applicants must then retake the examination to reestablish eligibility.

Veterans' Preference will be granted for this examination. In accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, whenever any veteran, or widow or widower of a veteran achieves a passing score on an open examination, he or she shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligible list.

Bulletin Date: 2/14/2022
