POSITION DESCRIPTION

TYPICAL TASKS

Positions at this level function as the non-supervisory technical specialist in a difficult, complex, and/or sensitive program and policy development role, and are those where the level of expertise required is definably greater than the journey level. Incumbents serve as highly skilled technical program consultants or as recognized authorities in areas of extreme sensitivity or complexity, or in areas of high specialization. Incumbents have statewide responsibility for the nutrition and related components of a major statewide project or program and may have coordinating or lead responsibility for nutrition and other professional-technical health staff. The policy and/or program development responsibility at this level has significant impact on health programs of local, State, or Federal agencies. It has the potential for resulting in establishment of new programs, or major modification of existing programs. Under general direction incumbents provide the most complex consultation; develop, plan, organize, coordinate, implement, and evaluate the nutrition and related components of major statewide projects or programs; evaluate and ensure statewide program consistency; provide professional and administrative guidance to program/project staff in a lead capacity; and propose and develop programs, legislation, regulations, policy, and procedures.
